GOING TO SIX.

Housewife's Refuge From Advance in Price Lies in Ten Cent Size. That the country must prepare for an advance in the price of the five cent loaf of bread within two weeks, the loaf going to six cents-and that vance in price lies in buying the ten cent loaf is the warning and advice contained in a statement made by Paul Schulze, president of the Schulze Bak-

company,
With the leading brands of flour at the unprecedented price of $8.10 a bar-rel to the dealer, and with every in-dication that it will mount higher, the dication that it will mount higher, the housewife must fortwith concern herself with the problem of the breadbuying situation," Mr. Schulze says. "If flour remains at their present high, or figure—and my information from the wheat fields of the northwest leads me to fear that they will go higher—it will be impossible for bakers to sell the small sized leaf at five cents. We are already confronted with the necessity of raising the price to six cents. Nevertheless everybody for a time at least may buy bread as economically, even with the small loaf at six cents. Bakers can continue to sell the large size, or ten cent loaf, at its pres-arge size, or ten cent loaf, at its presprice. From the standpoint of quality, taste and economy, that is the size to buy anyhow.

"As I said, for a time we can bake 10-cent loaf in the same size as here-tofore. This we shall be able to do because of the labor cost saved in baking and handling the larger loaf. It does not take any more labor to make and cut dough for the ten cent loaf than for the five cent loaf. It takes no more labor in handling it to and from the ovens, in wrapping it, loading it on the wagons and delivering it to the stores. All this saving we can turn to the relief of the housewife in these high wheat times.

to the relief of the housewife in the high wheat times. The high ten cent louf is the ideal practical loaf of the household, he housekeepers have objected to a the ground that their families do eat the entire loaf in a day and a did not care to keep the remaind, of the loaf until the next day. cannot too much emphasize the cr of flour prices going higher, when they do the bakers will be of the Dakotes and Minnesota I have positive information that but a small percentage of the crop forecasted from them will be delivered. The blight and rust, developed by the intense heat n the northwest, have cut the yield to minimum. This means high priced our with small chance of a retreat in Cour with small chance of a retreat in the prices.

"I most certainly believe an embargo should be placed on wheat. We have, it is true, enough wheat in this country for this year. But should the wheat crop next year be a failure, our country would face a calamity.

"The country generally, faces an increase in the price of the five cent loaf of bread. But no evil is as bad as it first appears. If the present high price of wheat teaches the housewife to buy the ten cent loaf of bread, it will have accomplished a great lesson in demestic economy." n domestic economy."
